

FAQs ON PHYSICAL FINAL EXAMINATION - FOR STUDENTS

- A. GENERAL
- B. PRE-EXAMINATION PREPARATION
- C. ON THE DAY OF EXAMINATION
- D. REPLACEMENT EXAMINATION MATTERS

A. GENERAL

1. Q: How will the Final Examination be conducted?

A: For academic courses with the Final Examination component, the Final Examination and Replacement Final Examination shall be conducted in physical mode on campus.

2. Q: When will the Final Examination be held?

A: The Division of Examination and Awards (DEAS) will announce through UTAR Portal the Final Examination Timetable as follows:

Table 1: Level of Study and Examination Period

Level	Examination Period
	January/ February Trimester	May/ June Trimester	September/ October Trimester
Postgraduate (Except for Master of Architecture)	Week 13 – 14	Week 13 – 14	Week 13 – 14
Undergraduate (Except for MBBS programme) Master of Architecture	Week 15 – 17	Week 15 – 17	Week 8 – 9
Foundation	Week 15	Week 15	Week 13

3. Q: Where can I check my Final Examination timetable?

A: The Final Examination timetable will be released to the students in the Student Portal under the Examination panel. Students need to login to the Student Portal to view their Final Examination timetable.

4. Q: Will there be any mock session(s) for Final Examination?

A: Your course coordinator / lecturer / examiner may conduct Continuous Assessment such as mid-term test or quiz in physical class as mock session(s) for you to familiarise with the Final Examination procedures. Just like any other national or international examination, it is the candidates' responsibility to know the requirements and expectations to ensure a smooth uninterrupted process throughout their Final Examination.

5. Q: What and how should I study or prepare for the Final Examination?

A: You should prepare for physical Final Examination by organising your notes and attempting the past years' question papers uploaded in the Student Portal.

Please note that Final Examination is normally a closed-book examination where you cannot bring into the venue your written notes or softcopy references. Here are some guides:

- ❖ Take note of the examination duration, e.g. 2 hours, 2.5 hours, 3 hours.
- ❖ Study each question carefully to gauge the examiner's expectations of your answers.
- ❖ Take note of the action verb(s) used to indicate answers required, e.g. list, prove, solve, discuss, elaborate, provide two (2) examples, give your opinion – each of them expects different answer(s) from you.
- ❖ Take note of the mark allocation for each question and sub-question.
- ❖ Time yourself when answering each question. Answer all the required questions on time.
- ❖ Apply your cognitive, creative, critical and analytical thinking skills in writing and problem solving.
- ❖ Integrate all your knowledge and skills to demonstrate attainment of the Course Learning Outcome (CLO) for the course.

6. Q: Whom should I refer to for more information on the Final Examination for my course(s)?

A: You should always refer to course coordinator / lecturer / examiner for the details of the Final Examination including the intended Course Learning Outcome(s) mapped, the type of Final Examination, method of conduct, background information on requirements including duration, scope of coverage, requirement for examples, reflection, opinion, elaboration; any restriction e.g. word count, word limit.

7. Q: Can I consult my Academic Advisor?

A: Yes. You can consult AA regarding your study load, academic performance, preparation for final examination, how to manage your time or improve your study skills. Please make appointment before an academic advisory session.

B. PRE-EXAMINATION PREPARATION

1. Q: What documents must I prepare before my examination?

A: You are required to have the Student Identity Card and the Examination Authorisation Slip as a proof of eligibility to sit for the examination unless otherwise specified by the University.

2. Q: When can I download my Examination Authorisation Slip for my examination?

A: DEAS will normally upload your Examination Authorisation Slip in the Student Portal under Examination panel in the last week of teaching. It is your responsibility to ensure the courses listed are correct. You are required to print the Examination Authorisation Slip in its original size on clean, white, full-sized A4 paper and bring along the hardcopy of the Slip when sitting for an examination. Any reduction, alteration, or unauthorised modification may render the Slip invalid and result in denial of entry to the examination venue. Please do not write any notes, sentences, remarks and etc. on the Examination Authorisation Slip. Any enquiries on the courses listed should be forwarded to DEAS.

3. Q: I do not have a valid Student ID Card. Can I use my Malaysian NRIC when sitting for an examination?

A: It is COMPULSORY for you to have a valid Student ID Card when sitting for an examination. You may proceed to Centre for Multimedia Production and Services to renew your Student ID Card if the Card is expired/not valid.

4. Q: I am an international student who has no valid Student ID Card. Can I use passport as identification when sitting for my final examination?

A: It is COMPULSORY for you to have a valid Student ID Card when sitting for an examination. You may proceed to Centre for Multimedia Production and Services to renew your Student ID Card if the Card is expired/not valid.

C. ON THE EXAMINATION DAY

1. Q: What are the documents / materials that I MUST have with me before leaving my hostel/home?

A: You are required to have:

- a. the Student Identity Card
- b. the Examination Authorisation Slip (only applicable for the main and replacement examinations)
- c. stationery
- d. any other materials required by the examiners (e.g. calculators).

2. Q: What time do I need to arrive at the examination venue?

A: You are advised to arrive at the examination venue TWENTY (20) MINUTES before the commencement of an examination as there will be screening of documents by invigilators at the entrance of an examination venue.

3. Q: I am not familiar with the campus layout. What should I do if I cannot find my examination venue?

A: You must ensure that you arrive at the correct examination venue. The examination venue for each examination is stated in the Examination Authorisation Slip. You can always seek assistance from the staff on duty at nearby venues if you have difficulty in locating the examination venue.

You are advised to get familiar with the campus especially the location of the examination venues that you are going to sit for the examination. You may go around the campus and locate the examination venues once the Examination Authorisation Slip is released. You may refer to the attached campus layout/map.

4. Q: When am I allowed to enter the examination venue?

A: You will normally be allowed to enter the examination venue FIFTEEN (15) MINUTES before the commencement of an examination.

5. Q: What are the procedures that I need to follow when entering the examination venue?

A: You are required to follow steps below when entering the examination venue:

- a. Before queuing up to enter the examination venue, students need to ensure that:
 - (i) they take out their Student Identity Card, Examination Authorisation Slip, and/or any other materials required by the examiners (e.g. calculators)
 - (ii) they did not write or have it written by another person, any information or diagram which may be relevant to the examination they are sitting for, on the Examination Authorisation slip, their hand or any part of their body, or their apparel or clothing.
 - (iii) they check their pockets (pants, shirt and jacket) and there are no unauthorized devices or materials in the pockets.
 - (iv) they remove their stationery from the pencil case. Students can hold their stationery or alternatively put the stationery in a transparent bag.
 - (v) they switch off all devices (including alarms), place both the unauthorised devices and materials inside their bags, and ensure that the bags are closed.

Note: Please refer to Regulation VI Examination Instructions to Candidates (available in the Student Portal) for detailed information on the prohibited items/actions.

- b. Students queue up to enter the examination venue.
- c. Before entering the examination venue, students must show the following documents to the invigilators:
 - (i) the Student Identity Card; AND
 - (ii) the Examination Authorisation Slip.
- d. Once inside the examination venue, students must immediately place their bags in the designated area and proceed to their assigned seating zone as projected on the screen. Students may choose any available seat within the designated zone. Bags must not be kept at or near your desk during the examination.
- e. Students must place their Student Identity Card and Examination Authorisation Slip on the top right-hand corner of the desk. Mobile phone or smart watch must be switched off and placed on the right-side floor together with the personal wallet and cover of the calculator. For seats next to right wall, these devices and items are to be placed on the left-side floor. A clock is provided in every examination venue. Students should refer to the clock in the examination venue.
- f. Students must remain seated when they are inside the venue. In the event the students need to take an authorized material from their bag, students must seek permission from the invigilators before leaving their seat.

6. Q: Am I allowed to sit for the examination if I arrive at the examination venue after the commencement of the examination?

A: You are allowed to enter the examination venue and sit for the examination WITHIN the first THIRTY (30) MINUTES of the examination. You will not be allowed to sit for the examination if you arrive at the examination venue AFTER the first THIRTY (30) MINUTES the examination has commenced.

7. Q: What are the do's and don'ts during the examination?

A: You are required to follow examination instructions given by the invigilator when taking the examination. Failing to do so, students may be referred to the Examination Disciplinary Committee for investigation and subjected to disciplinary action if applicable.

A standard announcement will be made by the Chief Invigilator before the commencement of the examination session. Kindly pay attention to the announcement made by the Chief Invigilator. You can refer to Regulation VI Examination Instructions to Candidates (available in the Student Portal) for detailed information on the prohibited items/actions.

8. Q: Am I allowed to read the question paper after I have seated in the examination venue?

A: You are not allowed to start reading and answering the question paper until being instructed to do so by the Chief Invigilator.

9. Q: What examination information should I write on the answer booklet?

A: You must fill in the attendance slip on the cover of the first answer booklet, tear the attendance slip and place it together with your Student ID Card and Examination Authorisation Slip on the top right-hand corner of your desk, which are to remain there throughout the examination.

You must write your index number on each answer booklet and paper used. For the first answer booklet, the index number must be written in both words and figures.

Example

Index No. : U One One One Two Three ABCS
(in words)

U11123ABCS
(in figures)

For subsequent answer booklets, the index number in figures would suffice. Students must not write their names on the answer booklet(s) or paper(s) used. Students must write the number of the questions they have attempted on the cover of the first answer booklet.

It is COMPULSORY for students to write the seat number on the attendance slip for every examination.

10. Q: What should I do if I am not feeling well during the examination?

A: You must inform the invigilators if you are not feeling well before the commencement of the examination. You may be placed in the allocated Special Room to continue your examination there.

11. Q: Am I allowed to go to the washroom during the examination?

A: No student is allowed to leave the examination venue within the FIRST THIRTY (30) MINUTES after the commencement of the examination and during the LAST TWENTY (20) MINUTES of an examination.

Any student who leaves the examination venue for the washroom must be accompanied by an invigilator or authorised staff, otherwise they shall not be readmitted to the examination venue. Students are not allowed to have in their possession any books, papers, bags, wallets, electronic and/or internet-enabled devices, or other unauthorised items or materials when leaving the examination venue temporarily to go to the toilet.

12. Q: Can I access my bag during the examination?

A: No. You are not allowed to access your bag until the examination has ended.

13. Q: What happens if a device in my bag rings or makes a sound during the examination?

A: If any device (e.g., phone, smartwatch, alarm, tablet) in the bag rings, vibrates, or makes a sound during the exam, the Invigilator may remove the bag, and place it in University custody.

14. Q: My pen is run out of ink. Can I borrow a pen from my friend who is sitting next to me?

A: You are not allowed to communicate with each other in the examination venue. Students should raise their hand and seek assistance from the invigilator in the examination venue.

15. Q: I have used all the answer booklets provided by the invigilators. Can I request for extra answer booklet(s)?

A: Yes, students may request for extra answer booklet(s) or other materials such as graph paper by raising their hand to notify the invigilator.

Do not remove any pages from the answer booklet or add unauthorised papers to the answer booklet. Additional sheets of paper, such as graph paper and drawings, must be clearly written with the student's index no. and tied to the relevant answer booklet.

16. Q: Can I leave the examination venue if I have finished answering the question paper?

A: No student is allowed to leave the examination venue within the FIRST THIRTY (30) MINUTES after the commencement of the examination and during the LAST TWENTY (20) MINUTES of an examination. You must ensure that you have submitted your answer scripts to the invigilator before leaving the examination venue.

It is a serious offence for students to take any used or unused answer booklet(s), paper(s), any other examination materials or examination aids provided by the University out of the examination venue.

17. Q: When am I allowed to leave the examination venue after I have handed over the answer script to the invigilator at the end of the examination?

A: You are required to remain seated even after your answer scripts have been handed over to the invigilators. You cannot leave the examination venue until you have received the invigilator's instructions to leave.

18. Q: How do I exit the examination venue after the examination ended?

A: Once students are allowed to leave the examination venue, you must follow the instructions of the invigilators. You must collect your bag from the designated area and exit the venue quietly.

19. Q: What should I do if my bag is removed during the examination?

A: The Chief Invigilator will inform students before release if a bag has been removed. Such bags can only be collected at the reporting station after the examination.

20. Q: I can't find my bag after the examination. What should I do?

A: Go immediately to the reporting station and check with the authorised staff. Bags removed during the examination (e.g., because of a ringing device or other concerns) will be kept there and released after the examination. Please note that the University is not responsible for any loss of or damage to bags.

D. REPLACEMENT EXAMINATION MATTERS

1. Q: If I am absent in an examination, can I sit for the replacement examination?

A: A student who is absent, with justifiable reason(s) and evidence, in an examination can apply for special consideration to sit for a replacement examination.

2. Q: When can I apply for replacement examination?

A: You must submit the completed form to the Faculty/Institute/Centre within three (3) working days from the day of that particular course of examination together with the supporting documents. The Faculty/Institute/Centre shall notify the applicants after the decision has been made by the University.

3. Q: How do I apply for replacement examination?

A: You can apply for replacement examination by completing the FM-DEAS-026 Application for Special Consideration of Assessment form. The form is available in the Student Portal or DEAS webpage (deas.utar.edu.my). Students must attach all the supporting documents (e.g. medical report) to the application form.

4. Q: If I am granted approval to sit for the replacement examination, when will the replacement examination be held?

A: Replacement examination will be arranged for eligible applicants only. The tentative replacement examination period is available in DEAS webpage at <https://deas.utar.edu.my/Examination-Dates.php>.

Students who are eligible for the replacement examination must sit for the physical replacement examination as scheduled. Subsequent appeal for special consideration due to absenteeism in the replacement examination may not be attended to.

5. Q: While I am still waiting for my replacement examination results, can I join the classes for the subsequent trimester?

A: You are allowed to attend any lecture/ tutorial/ practical classes for subsequent trimester while waiting for the results of the replacement examination.
The results of the replacement examination will be released within 2 weeks after the examination.
