

Implementation of Supplementary Examination

What? Supplementary Examination

- ✓ A second chance given to students upon failing their Main Examination (also known as Final Examination)
- ✓ Same standard and examination duration as that of the Main Examination
- ✓ Maximum final marks and grade awarded for Supplementary Examination is capped at 50 marks or Grade C

Why? Rationale

- ✓ Give students the chance to demonstrate that they have achieved the learning outcome(s) of a course, to pass a course and to proceed with their studies without delay

When? Effective Date

- ✓ October 2023 Trimester onwards

Who? Criteria

Eligible

- ✓ Students enrolled in Undergraduate (full-time and part-time) and Foundation programmes, excluding inbound students
- ✓ Students who failed any course after the Main Examination, regardless of the GPA obtained, upon the recommendation of the Board of Examiners

Not Eligible

- ✗ Students who sat for:
 - (i) End of Course examinations, End of Posting examinations and Professional Examination of Bachelor of Medicine and Bachelor Surgery (MBBS) programme
 - (ii) Professional Examination of Bachelor of Nursing (Honours)
 - (iii) Professional Exit Examination of Bachelor of Physiotherapy (Honours)
 - (iv) Replacement Examination
- ✗ Students who failed course(s) due to:
 - (i) being barred from sitting the Main Examination; or
 - (ii) failing to fulfil the compulsory pass requirement for the continuous assessment component
- ✗ Students who are in breach or alleged to have breached the University's examination rules and regulations for the failed course(s)

How? Registration & Payment

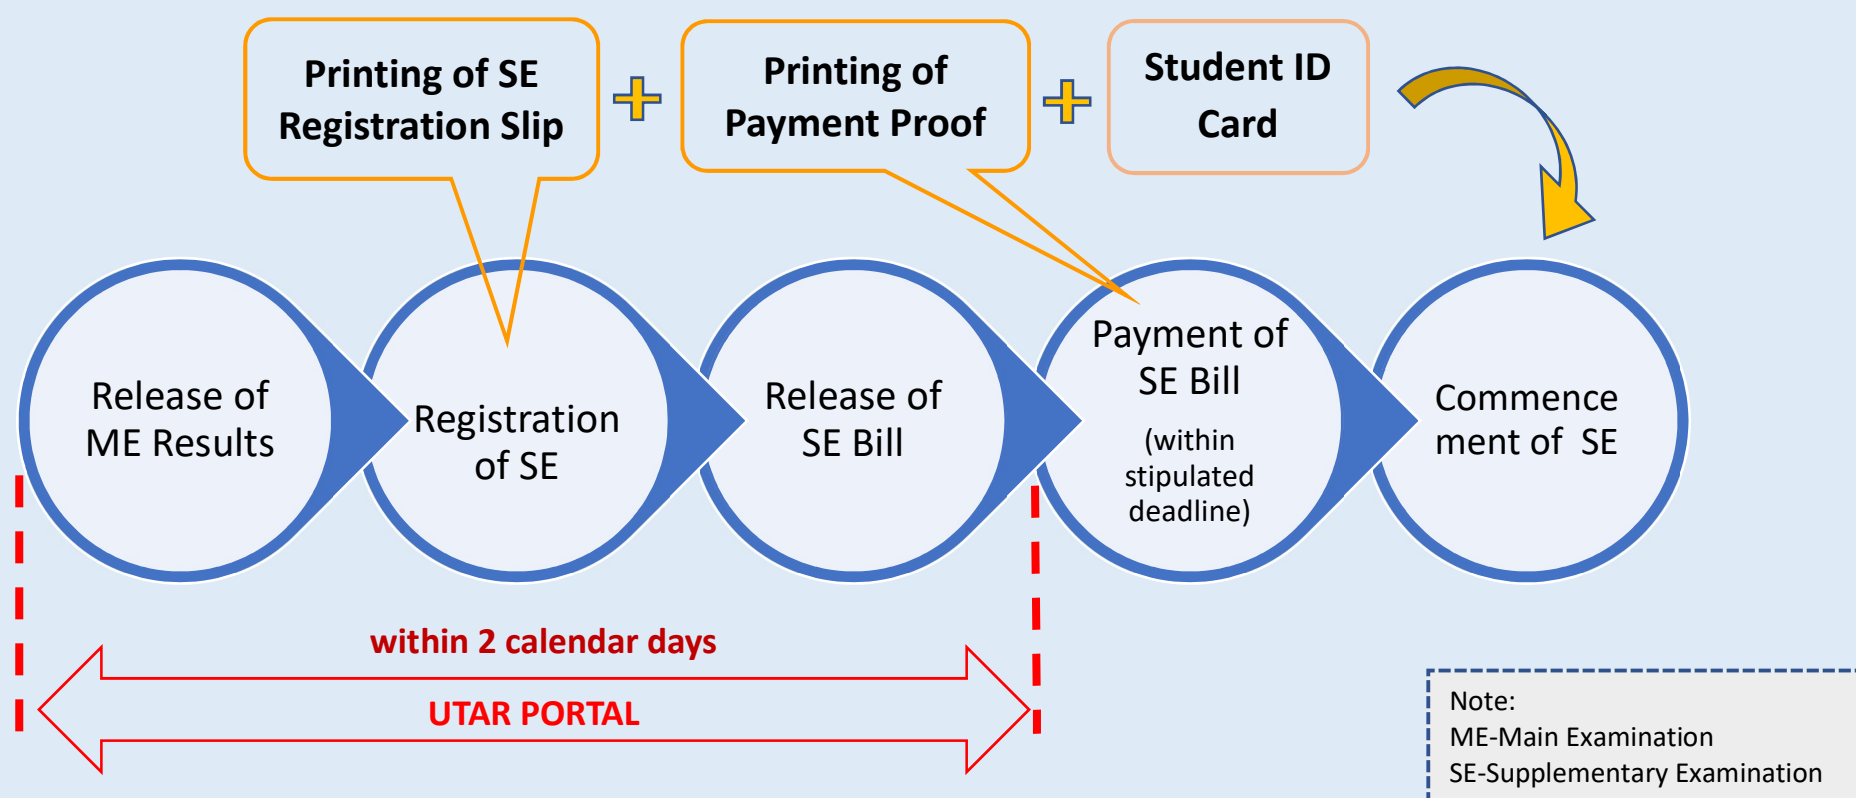

- ✓ Registration of the failed course(s) for Supplementary Examination is required
- ✓ Upon registration, students need to print the Supplementary Examination Registration Slip (on a clean white A4 size paper) and show this slip upon entry at the examination venue
 - ✗ No examination authorization slip will be issued to Supplementary Examination candidates
- ✓ Subject to eligibility, a student can register for the Supplementary Examination for all their failed course(s) within the given timeline
- ✓ A fee of RM100 (MYR ONE HUNDRED) will be charged for the Supplementary Examination of each failed course
- ✓ Payment mode and payment proof:

Payment Mode	Payment Proof	Remarks
Internet banking	Payment Record/ Reference	Must indicate "Course Code" e.g. MPU3112 under "Reference"
University Division of Finance	Receipt	e-wallet is accepted
Public Bank branch	Payment Slip

✓ For payment through internet banking, students must indicate the SPECIFIC course code(s) in the Reference section

NOTE: Payment via PBe Online Banking (access through UTAR Portal -> Billing -> My Billing: Students do not have to enter the “Course Code” when they pay online as there is no avenue for them to do so. However, students are required to print and bring the payment proof and the corresponding student bill when taking the Supplementary Examination.

✓ Students are required to bring the Supplementary Examination Registration Slip and payment proof together with their Student ID Card when sitting for the Supplementary Examination

How? Appeal Processes

	After Release of Main Examination Results	After Release of Supplementary Examination Results
Appeal for Review of Examination Results	✓ Students can appeal for review of Main Examination results and register for Supplementary Examination concurrently ✓ Appeal fee of RM100 per Main Examination course is applicable ✓ The appeal fee and Supplementary Examination fee will be refunded if the appeal is successful. The results of the Supplementary Examination for the course concerned will be voided.	✓ Students can appeal for review of Supplementary Examination results only ✓ Appeal fee of RM100 per Supplementary Examination course is applicable ✓ The appeal fee will be refunded if the appeal is successful.
Appeal against Termination	✓ Students can submit the Appeal against Termination and register for Supplementary Examination concurrently ✓ The appeal fee will be refunded if student's academic standing is elevated from terminated to normal/probation status after Supplementary Examination	✓ Students can submit the Appeal against Termination if they have not done so after the Main Examination
	✓ Only applicable to students who have been terminated from their programme of study after the Main Examination ✓ Only need to appeal ONCE either after the Main Examination or Supplementary Examination ✓ Appeal fee of RM100 is applicable

For further clarification, please contact Division of Examination and Awards at:

Sungai Long Campus: +018 3692100, 03-9086 0288 Ext: 813, 814, 815 or 816

Kampar Campus: +018 2582100, 05-468 8888 Ext: 2275, 2276, 2277 or 2278

Email: deas@utar.edu.my